“Bosco Longhino”

Bonarda dell'Oltrepò Pavese D.O.C.

The symbol of local enology obtained from the purity vinification of Croatina grapes. This single-vine wine comes from the land belonging to our family for five generations, located in the homonymous Bosco Longhino woods. Our ancestor Edoardo Faravelli made this same wine.

Color: Deep ruby red with violet reflections

Aromas: Fine, intense, penetrating and vinous, with hints of marasca cherry and blackberry

Taste: Exuberant body with depth, slightly tannic, medium to long persistence

Pairings: To be enjoyed in its youth, combine freely with every refined cuisine such as braised meat “ravioli”

Serving temperature: 15 °C

Alcohol content: 12% vol.
