VITICOLTORI DAL 1895

“La Croce”

Riesling IGT PV

Obtained from the vinification of Riesling grapes. The vineyard from which this wine takes its name was purchased by grandfather Tullio in the 1950s. In that land an iron cross had been planted, a vow made by the previous owner, Mrs. Angioletta, to implore the Madonna for the return of her son from the war. Grandfather kept the promise never to remove the cross from that land.

Color: straw yellow with greenish reflections.

Aromas: delicate aromas, scent of green apple and balsamic sensations.

Taste: fresh and delicate, with good persistence.

Food pairings: accompanies vegetable-based appetizers, delicate first courses and white meats.

Serving temperature: 6-7° C

Alcohol content: 12% vol.
